A hidden gem in the heart of the Bergerac region

QUAI CYRANO IS A UNIQUE VENUE IN THE DORDOGNE, BRINGING TOGETHER BERGERAC'S TOURIST OFFICE, THE "MAISON DES VINS", AND A CULTURAL CENTRE WITHIN A SINGLE LOCATION DEDICATED TO PROMOTING THE REGION.

Located right next to the Dordogne River, in the historic center, this vast 17th-century building was originally a convent for the Récollets (mendicant friars of the Franciscan Order) built on the site of the former gardens of Bergerac Castle during the reign of Louis XIII.

Beneath this former convent lies a cellar where the monks used to store their food and wine.

Today, it is the perfect venue for hosting meetings or events in a prestigious setting.

The wine cellar also hosts the CAB's Micro-Folie and the induction ceremonies for winemakers, hence its name « caveau de la vinée ».

Tribute to Savinien de Cyrano

While the character of Cyrano de Bergerac is best known from Edmond de Rostand's play, which premiered in 1897 at the Théâtre de la Porte-Saint-Martin, it is based on a famous figure with a prominent nose, Mr. Hercule Savinien de Cyrano de Bergerac, who actually existed !

Before becoming a writer, this man from the Chevreuse Valley (from the villages of Mauvières and Bergerac) was also a Gascon musketeer and later a writer. Several statues have been erected around the building. They serve as a reminder to both residents and passing tourists of the town's fame, which is partially due to this famous figure.
